

BUILD YOUR EMPIRE

with the help of the right financial partner.

At Bodine Perry, we want to be considered your partner in business.

We view your risks as our risks,
your challenges as our challenges.

There are many challenges facing the construction industry right now. As you take the next step in building your empire, consider whether or not you have the right partner to help you navigate those challenges:

- Talent shortages and rising subcontractor costs. What tax and financial strategies can help you maintain a positive cash flow in a time of rising costs?
- Job costing and breakeven analysis. Are you using proper overhead and burden expenses in your bidding?
- A new U.S. president. What does their plan have in store for you?

Bodine Perry can offer your company insight into your most challenging questions through the following services, just to name a few:

- ◆ Audit, Review, or Compilation of Financial Statements
- ◆ Tax Services-Business and Individual
- ◆ Bookkeeping and Accounting Services
- ◆ Job Costing and Overhead Analysis
- ◆ Business Valuation
- ◆ Succession Planning
- ◆ Executive Compensation and Benefits
- ◆ R&D Credit Analysis
- ◆ Profit Enhancement Strategies
- ◆ Debt Restructuring
- ◆ Fraud Prevention and Detection Services
